NOTICE OF PUBLIC INTEREST

REQUEST FOR COMMENTS ON THE ESTIMATES AND METHODOLOGY FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA
FY 2005 CASELOAD REDUCTION CREDIT REPORT

The Director, Department of Human Services (Department), pursuant to the requirements of the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996 (42 U.S.C. 601 et seq.) and 45 C.F.R. 261.41(a)(8), hereby gives notice of the intent to publish the 2004 Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) Caseload Reduction Credit Report (Report). At the end of each fiscal year, the Department is required to submit a Report to the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) Regional Office. The Report provides data on the gross decline in the District of Columbia's TANF caseload and estimates whether any portion of this caseload decline is attributable to changes in program rules that have the effect of restricting eligibility. Under federal regulations, this Report must be made available for public comment.

All interested persons are invited to submit written comments to:

Kate Jesberg, Administrator
Income Maintenance Administration
645 H Street, N.E., 5th Floor

#	Eligibility Change	Implementation Date	Estimated Impact on Caseload Since Change (positive or negative impact)
Changes Required by Federal Law
1	Denied assistance to non-qualified immigrants	October 1996	The effect of this change is minimal, if any. Prior to the federal law change, most immigrant families receiving assistance received assistance only for the children. That is, the children received a child-only grant. This was the case because a large proportion of very low-income immigrant families in the District are headed by non-qualified immigrants who were ineligible for cash assistance under prior AFDC rules (such as parents who had been granted Temporary Protective Status). The children in most of these families were born in the United States and, thus, are U.S. citizens. The PRWORA alien changes did not affect these families' eligibility for assistance.
2	Denied assistance to certain qualified immigrants in their first five years in the country	October 1996	The effect of this eligibility change is also minimal. Historically, most immigrant families that received AFDC received a child-only grant on behalf of citizen children.
3	Required minor parents to live in an adult-supervised setting	March 1997	No cases were terminated based on this requirement. Prior to the enactment of this provision, very few minor parents were living without adult supervision. Of those who were, some moved into such a setting while others

Historically, most immigrant families that received AFDC received a child-only grant on behalf of citizen children. Again, we estimate that this eligibility change has reduced the District's average monthly caseload by less than 10 cases.

Part III – Description of the Methodology Used to Calculate the Caseload Reduction Estimates
(attach supporting data to this form)

Because none of the applicable policy changes listed below has resulted in a negative impact on case closures (although individuals may be ineligible for assistance), it is our understanding that the establishment of a methodology for determining impacts is unnecessary.

1. Parents/caretakers must work after 24 months of assistance or when job ready.
2. Teen parents must live in adult-supervised settings to receive assistance.
3. A State must deny assistance for 10 years to a person found to have fraudulently misrepresented residence in order to obtain assistance in more than one State.
4. A State must deny assistance for fugitive felons, probation violators, or parole violators.
5. A State must deny assistance for certain individuals convicted of drug-related felonies (NOTE: the District has not adopted this provision based on District law).
6. Non-qualified aliens are ineligible for federal TANF assistance.

State: DC

Fiscal Year: 2005

PART IV - Certification

I certify that we have provided the public an appropriate opportunity to comment on the estimates and methodology used to complete this Report and considered those comments in completing it. Further, I certify that this Report incorporates all reductions in the caseload resulting from State eligibility changes and changes in federal requirements since Fiscal Year 1995.
